

REAR COMMODORE HOUSE UPDATE September 2019

Hello All, September, an Mean Fomhair. literally, middle of Autumn. The evenings are drawing in but we still have three weeks of evening sailing left.

SAILING STUFF

Wednesday racing continues for cruisers with the earlier time of 18.25 for the First Gun, and the last race of the season on Wednesday 18th.

Squibs and Dragons, Midweek Series continues until September 12th with first Gun also at the earlier time of 18.25. Saturday Squib sailing will begin on September 7th at 13.55

White Sail racing also with First Gun at 18.25 will continue until Friday 20th.

The Spalpeen Trophy Race and RNLI fundraising evening will take place on September 6th.

The All-IN race has first Gun at 18.25. This event, remembering our former member Billy Draper, always draws a huge crowd of supporters to the Clubhouse and the annual Auction and fundraising draw in aid of the RNLI will take place. A great night , not to be missed.

Kinsale Yacht Club At Home

Our Annual Get together for all clubmembers kicks off at 11.55 for dinghies and 12.55 for keelboats on Sunday, September 15th. Come along after racing for the free barbeque from 16.00 and meet your fellow members, many of whom are newly joined following the Adult Sailing courses held this year, and a small number are still freely available to crew boats.

It is important that you register all participants for the barbeque in the Clubhouse before sailing .

Sailability will continue sailing on Saturdays for the month starting as usual at 10.00

2.4m Irish National Championships are being held in Kinsale on September 21 and 22nd

Sunday Cruiser Racing kicks off with the Daunt Race on September 8th with first gun at 10.55.

The Cimarron Trophy Race will take place on September 29th with First Gun at 12.55

Elsewhere

The SCORA Cobh to Blackrock race is scheduled for September 14th provisionally and the RCYS October League will take place in Crosshaven beginning on Sunday September 29th

See you all in the Club,

Tony Scannell
