Data Protection

Kinsale Yacht Club is the lead data controller for the purposes of processing Club memberships. In becoming a member or renewing your membership of Kinsale Yacht Club, you also automatically become a member of Irish Sailing, the national governing body for Sailing, Windsurfing & Powerboating in Ireland. As a Joint Data Controller of your membership data, we share your personal data with Irish Sailing in line with the Personal Data Sharing Agreement which is in place between the Club and Irish Sailing.

The Clubs privacy notice is available to review on the club website, www.kyc.ie. This notice sets out details of how the Club processes your personal data and who we share it with along with contact details should you have any data protection queries.

Due to the special protection afforded to the personal data of children, (< 16 years of age) and vulnerable adults, Kinsale Yacht Club wishes to obtain parental/guardian consent to process such data. You are requested to please review the consent statement below and sign should you feel comfortable doing so. If you have any queries, please contact info@kyc.ie

Statement of Consent: I consent to Kinsale Yacht Club processing the personal data of the children/vulnerable adults in my care as detailed above. The Club processes this personal data for the purposes of completing membership related activities. This may include for example processing membership applications, management of sailing events, training, age appropriate social events and social media. Personal data may be shared with third parties as outlined in the Club's privacy notice available at www.kyc.ie . You can withdraw consent at anytime by contacting info@kyc.ie
